

NAMA Component 3 Implementation – Creation of a financial instrument: world's lowest energy prices, on-going economic crisis and nearly zero investment activity in Kazakhstan in the background

Three-party agreement, planning, payments of the subsidies and reporting

Three-party subsidizing agreement signed between DAMU, the bank and the applicant comprising:

- Financing conditions;
- Responsibilities of the parties, term of the agreement, confidentiality;
- Schedule of payments, where payments are synchronized with the loan repayment. The schedules of payments by the applicant and by DAMU are spelled separately

DAMU requests advance funding to comply with the schedule of payments (FACE form), to cover timely payments to the bank (p. 6, 7 of the Rules); DAMU presents a quarterly report (FACE form) with supporting documents attached to account for the payments realized

Some informing about projects